

United States Tricky Trivia Answers

1. 46. Four are commonwealths: Kentucky, Virginia, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania
2. The United States has sixteen territories, five of which are permanently inhabited: Puerto Rico, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, the U.S. Virgin Islands and American Samoa.
3. Death Valley, California recorded a temperature of 134 degrees on July 10, 1913.
4. Alaska, Alabama, Arizona and Ohio
5. Virginia
6. Pensacola, Florida
7. Reno, Nevada
8. 10 states (really 8 states and 2 commonwealths): Delaware for Thomas West, 3rd Baron De La Warr; Louisiana for King Louis XIV; Georgia for King George II; Maryland for Henrietta Maria of France, the wife of King Charles I of England; North and South Carolina for King Charles I of England; Pennsylvania, for William Penn; Virginia and West Virginia for Queen Elizabeth I, the virgin queen; Washington for President George Washington
9. Louisiana has parishes and Alaska has divisions
10. Tennessee and Missouri
11. Idaho because of the mountains
12. California
13. Ohio— Columbus, Cleveland and Cincinnati
14. Christopher Columbus— Columbus, Ohio and Columbia, South Carolina
15. Key West, Florida

